12. For this motion, state every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground.

GROUND ONE: Ineffective assistance of counsel during the critical stages of plea bargaining, sentencing, and direct appeal

(a) Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

Initially, the government offered the chance to enter a guilty plea to a two-count-indictment carrying a sentence of ten years' imprisonment. Petitioner told counsel that he wanted to accept the plea offer. Counsel failed to convey acceptance of the plea offer to the government in a timely fashion. The plea offer lapsed because counsel did not convey the acceptance within the government's time frame. After that, things went downhill. All of this is explained in the memorandum of law, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference herewith. Replacement counsel then was involved in plea negotiations with the government. The negotiations came to a halt when Mr. Roberts went on vacation. When Mr. Roberts returned, and negotiations resumed. Mr. Roberts failed to keep Petitioner informed on the progress (or lack thereof) of plea negotiations. Petitioner believes that he was not informed of all plea offers. If that's true, the failure to communicate with Petitioner deprived Petitioner of the chance to accept a plea offer which presumably would have led to a lower sentence. Sentencing counsel failed to object to the ex post facto violation arising from the use of the 2011 Sentencing Guidelines Manual which applied guideline enhancements imposed after the Petitioner's involvement in the conspiracy terminated, and after the conspiracy terminated. Appellate counsel was ineffective for failing to appeal the ex post facto violation. As a result of the IAC of sentencing counsel and/or appellate counsel, the sentence is more severe that it would have been with effective lawyering.
